

Orlando Behavior Health, LLC

CE Questions and Answers

Webinar Title: Clinical Decision Making in Cases of Children with Problematic Sexual Behavior

Date: 4/10/2018

Time: 3-4 p.m.

Presenters: Shel Millington, M.A., LPC
and Amanda Mitten, MA, LPC

Your name:

1. Youth with problematic sexual behaviors rarely have other behavior problems.
 - a. True
 - b. False
2. Clinical assessment assists in generating treatment recommendation to address a variety of presenting symptoms.
 - a. True
 - b. False
3. It is appropriate to involve caregivers in the clinical decision making process.
 - a. True
 - b. False
4. When making treatment planning decisions it is important to consider level of intrusiveness and level of severity related to the sexual behavior.
 - a. True
 - b. False
5. Only the caregiver interview should be used for clinical decision making and treatment planning.
 - a. True
 - b. False
6. It is common to see overlap of symptoms among PSB, trauma, and other behavior concerns.
 - a. True
 - b. False
7. Caregivers' supervision and monitoring of the child with problematic sexual behavior (and other children) is factor for treatment recommendations.
 - a. True
 - b. False
8. It is acceptable to provide education to caregivers about problematic sexual behavior regardless of the recommended treatment modality.
 - a. True
 - b. False
9. Treatment planning for children with problematic sexual behavior should be ongoing from the beginning and through the course of treatment.
 - a. True
 - b. False
10. It is important to consider PTSD symptoms when deciding between multiple modalities of therapy.
 - a. True
 - b. False